Don’t Be Scared. Be Prepared.™

No education professional wants to think about an active shooter on campus. Recent tragic events illustrate a clear and imminent need to prepare educators for these threats. Public institutions are required by law to follow rules and regulations to train for emergency responses, and several states have enacted or are considering enacting regulations specific to early childhood programs.

Preschool Preparedness for an Active Shooter, the first book in the new Preparing for the Unexpected series, acknowledges and balances the harsh realities and challenges of emergency preparedness.

Learn how to implement emergency preparedness:
- Develop situational awareness
- Create rings of security in your facility
- Promote a culture of safety
- Respond in an emergency
- Conduct drills
- Instill emergency practices in children that will last a lifetime

See more Program Administration books on pages 12–15.

Andrew Roszak, JD, MPA, EMT-P, serves as the executive director at the Institute for Childhood Preparedness, an organization that works to enhance emergency preparedness, response, and recovery for early childhood professionals. Previously, he served as the senior director for emergency preparedness at Child Care Aware of America. He is a co-author of the Head Start Emergency Preparedness Manual.

Don’t Look Away: Embracing Anti-Bias Classrooms

Every day, 250 children are suspended from school. Many are children of color, deprived of opportunities to experience learning at the same rate and quality as white children. Many families don’t feel heard or respected in their children’s schools.

Don’t Look Away: Embracing Anti-Bias Classrooms leads early childhood professionals to explore and address issues of bias, equity, low expectations, and family engagement to ensure culturally responsive experiences. Importantly, this book will challenge you to consider your perceptions and thought processes:
- Identify your own unconscious biases—we all have them!
- Recognize and minimize bias in the classroom, school, and community
- Connect with children and their families
- Help close the opportunity gap for children from marginalized communities

So You Want to Start Your Own Child-Care Business
As more families shift to both parents working outside the home, the demand for high-quality child care continues to rise, creating ample opportunity for entrepreneurs like you. Now that you’ve identified the market need, what’s next? How do you set up something as complicated as a child-care center?

The Basics of Starting a Child-Care Business, the first book in The Business of Child Care series, walks readers through each step of planning, developing, and launching their own child-care business. Regardless of the scale—joining an established franchise, creating an on-site center at your office, or hosting a program in your home—entrepreneurial expert Marnie Forestieri, CDA, will guide you from start to finish:

• Understand the economics of the child-care business
• Write a comprehensive business plan
• Prepare a thorough financial plan
• Develop efficient operations for smooth day-to-day functioning
• Master marketing to promote your business to potential customers
• Provide excellent quality control and customer service
• And more!

Marnie Forestieri, CDA, is an entrepreneur at heart with a passion for introducing innovative approaches to education. As a successful operator of a child-care franchise, she has been recognized in the industry with awards such as the Center of the Year by FACC and Finalist for the Director of the Year. She has earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration, is a former vice president of marketing for a major telecommunications company, and holds both a CDA credential and a director’s credential.
Ignite Children’s Passion for Easy and Engaging STEAM Activities!

Sure, you know that children learn best through hands-on explorations. How does that work in a real classroom? With jam-packed days and mounting expectations, you’re pressed for time and pushed to follow standards-based curricula. It’s no wonder you struggle to incorporate STEAM activities each day.

Provoking Curiosity brings new and easy-to-execute STEAM learning experiences that encourage children to think, explore, and wonder. Each exploration builds on core ideas in the STEAM disciplines, develops higher-level thinking skills, and uses readily available materials in early childhood classrooms.

Learn how to use STEAM provocations throughout your busy day:
- Jump-start the morning
- Decompress and reenergize midday
- Occupy children who complete assigned classroom work early
- Incentivize children to complete a goal
- Transition between the busier times of day and planned classroom work times
- End the day building children’s collaboration and communication skills

Round Up Your All-Stars!

Finding the right people to staff your center is challenging! Have you ever hired someone you thought was perfect, only to have her leave after a few months? Have you filled a position with a “warm body” to maintain the adult-child ratio because you couldn’t find a more qualified candidate?

Recruiting is an ongoing process that requires reflection, dedication, and importantly, a solid plan. But the plan isn’t always easy to craft, especially when you’re understaffed!

Build Your Dream Team will help you take the first step to creating your plan and will remain your right-hand guide as you hire, onboard, and nurture your new all-stars.

Learn how to build the right team:
- Master effective recruiting techniques
- Craft effective job posts
- Conduct data-based interviews
- Make job offers more attractive
- Onboard new employees to make them part of your team
- Think strategically to plan for growth
- Work with a diverse staff
- Train staff for continual professional growth
